Curriculum: The Huffman K9 Intro into Man Tracking seminar will be an introductory training course focusing on teaching the "blueprint" for man tracking in both Wilderness and Urban environments. The course will take place over two full Sundays, spaced two weeks apart. This allows us to teach and demonstrate techniques that can be practiced by students over the following 13 days.

Day one will consist of a two hour classroom session followed by 6-8 hours of wilderness tracking practice. Day two will Immediately jump into urban tracking, meeting in downtown Portland.

Handlers will learn to develop tracking K9 capabilities in different ages of K9's, develop tracking effectiveness and maintain capability, unique considerations for tracking in both an urban and rural/wilderness landscape, translate the fundamentals of science behind scent signatures into tracking performance, learn how tracking teams can be beaten, learn basic leash handling skills to increase tracking performance and how to read changes of behavior in your K9 and adjust search strategy. Each day will be dedicated to working directly with each handler and each dog present in the course. Each member of the course will have an opportunity to observe each of the other handlers and dogs - and be presented with an opportunity to learn from each other's successes and issues.
